HEART DISEASE.

Some Facts Regarding the Rapid Increase of Heart Trouble.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion. Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogas-

In another way, also the heart is +3another way, also the neart is as-fected by the form of poor digestien, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises pal-pitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Staurt's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular per sistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. SECTION EIGHT ADOPTED.

Body Passed by a Motion for Recess Until November 9th-Section 11 Now Under Consider-

The Constitutional Convention held two sessions yesterday and at the end of the one in the afternoon adjourned to meet at noon to-morrow. Section's of the Bill of Rights, relating to trial by jury, was taken up and its consideration occupied most of the morning session. The substitute offered by Mr. Dunaway and accepted by Chairman Green was finally adopted without amendment. Sections 9 and 19 were then adopted as reported by the committee. Section II was taken up, but its consideration was not completed before recess. There were sixty-four members present at the morning session. Only a few visitors were on

Mr. Meredith submitted a resolution providing for a recess from yesterday until November 7th. There were a number of amendments and much debate, after which the whole matter was passed by temporarily.

When the body reassembled at 3 o'clock there was barely a quorum present. The session was not a long one. After considerable debate over Mr. Braxton's amendment to Section 11, doing away with manipular of varilies in early cases. with unanimity of verdict in civil cases and allowing the Legislature to fix the number of jurors, the body adjourned. Strong speeches were made by Mr. Brax-ton for and Mr. Bouldin against the amendment.

Day in Detail,

The convention met at 10 o'clock, pray-er by Dr. McIlwaine. Sixty-six mem-bers were present and the journal of Fri-day's proceedings was read and approvec. Mr. Meredith, rising to a question of personal privilege, said that it had been stated in debate some days ago that a Baptist minister was being taken care of by the Little Sisters of the Poor. Investigation showed that this was a mistake The minister so cared for was not a Bap-tist minister, but belonged to some other denomination. A great many leaves of absence were granted members.

When the regular order was taken up,
Mr. Meredith said in view of the innumerable leaves of absence just granted it, was evident that no work could be done at all next week. He moved that the convention adjourn to-day, to meet November 7th, and adjourn without pay of members.

Dr. McIlwaine said he was opposed to any such thing. The convention seemed to him to have been trifling for some time. He thought a better thing to do was to cancel every leave of absence that had just been granted. He moved to amend Mr. Meredith's motion to the ef-fect that all leaves of absence be can-

Mr. Meredith replied by saying the members had been here ever since August 26th, and had been attending exclusively to public duties. The proposition to take a recess was not unreasonable when members saw that the expense to the members saw that the expense to the State was stopped.

Many members here were called upon to attend the courts and protect the interests of their clients. There was no chance, in view of the numerous leaves of absence just granted, of having a quorum to work with next week.

The chair ruled that Dr. Mellwaine's motion was out of order. motion was out of order.

MUCH OPPOSITION.

Mr. Thom strongly oposed the motion to adjourn to-day. He said it would subject the convention to unjust cr.ticism for it to adjourn until there was no more that could be done. He favored revoking the leaves of absence, and in the event of a lack of a quorum he should favor sending for absent members and compelling them to return.

Mr. Watson offered a substitute that the convention adjourn Saturday, October 25th, to meet Thursday, November 7th, Mr. Meredith accepted the substi-

Mr. O'Flaherty offered an amendment to adjourn on Friday, October 25th, un-til Thursday, November 7th. Mr. Hunton moved to pass by all resolutions of adjournment This motion was adopted. Consideration of section 8 of the Bill of Rights was resumed. Mr. Waddal spoke in advocacy of his amendment providing that in all cases in which the death pen alty or imprisonment for life was not in-volved, a person pleading not guilty should have the right to waive a jury trial. .ne only difference in this amendment and the one so thoroughly debated Friday is that murder cases are excepted. Mr. Waddill made a strong argument for the imendment, the reasons being necessarily the ones advanced by advocates of the other amendment Friday. He claimed that, without this amendment, the law, as amended by the committee, was in a worse shape now than it was under existing practice. He cited many instances the amendment would be the means of saving costs to the accused and also to the Commonwealth.

ON THE SAME LINES. Mr. Braxton in opposition to the amendment, contended that there was but litthe difference in this and the one which was rejected Friday. His speech was along the same lines, but not so extended as his argument Friday. He dwelt on the injustice to a judge to have to hear and determine a criminal case involving questions of fact as well as of law. He urged members to vote against the amendment.

The amendment was rejected-yeas, 29; ays. 35. Further discussion was had over proposed amendments to section 8, and some verbal changes were made. The substitute offered by Dr. Dunaway

The substitute offered by Dr. Dunaway The substitute offered by Dr. Dunaway and accepted by the committee, as amended by the convention, was again adopted. Section 9, declaring that excessive bail shall not be required, was adopted.

his substitute. Colonel Pettit strongly inveighed against it. Mr. Braxton was speaking again. Judge Green called his attention to his promise to help get through with the Bill of Rights to-day.

"Yes," said Mr. Braxton, "You do not object to loquacity in other members. The quickest way to dispose of me is to let me alone until I get through." He then proceeded to make a powerful adopted the majority rule, and illustrated by a great number of hung juries the vils of the unanimous verdict. The hour of one having arrived during Mr. Brax-ton's speech, Chairman Goode announced that the convention would take a recess until 3 o'clock. Mr. Braxton will conclude his speech then, although he said he would complete it in a few minutes.

Afternoon Session.

The convention reassembled at 3 o'clock.

A motion was made to adjourn. Mr. Braxton said if they would give him ten minutes he would promise to conclude his sneech by the clock.

Colonel Smith said he was anxious to hear it, but when the time came to take a vote the fact would be developed that a quorum was not present and the convention had just as well adjourn now. Judge Green, chairman of the commit-tee, begged Colonel Smith to withdraw his motion. This was done, and Mr.

Braxton proceeded to conclude his argument, begun at the morning session.

He read from a long list of States which had authorized majority verdicts,

and said it could be generally understood that the large corporations would al-ways oppose this reform. He then read extracts from the Law Register to emphasize this statement.

Judge Bouldin made a strong speech in favor of the ancient right of trial by jury and regretted exceedingly that the convention had decided to allow a jury of less than twelve under any circum-stances. As that had been done, he most earnestly objected to any further change

To establish the majority verdict would in effect destroy the whole jury system.

He quoted largely from Mr. Choate's address before the New York Bar Association in confirmation of this view. He said that hung juries often prevented a miscarriage of justice. Judge Bouldin denied that corporations would alone be injured by the majority verdicts.

Judge Anderson said he did not rise to make a speech because every speech made to-day were the same ones that had been made in the Committee of the list of States read by Mr. Braxton as having adopted the majority rule was inaccurate. He contended that almost every one of them had repealed the law, leaving only nine States now as having it. There was another colloquy here between the speaker and mr. Braxton.

The vote was taken. Mr. Braxton called for the yeas and nays. The roll-call showed: Yeas, 11; nays, 33. NO QUORUM PRESENT.

May Portha Mohr. No. 123 Gilbert Street.

Mrs. Bertha Mohr, No. 123 Gilbert Street, Iowa City, writes:

"I was very nervous and weak, had frontal headache and catarrh of the stomach, bowels and intestines (systemic catarrh). I had female weakness very bad, I cannot express my thanks for the wonderful benefit obtained through Dr. Hartderful benefit obtained through Dr. Hatterman's medicine, Peruna. I could not work, my limbs trembled so. I am restored and can do my own work. I am certain that whoever tries Peruna will be satisfied with it."—Mrs. Bertha Mohr. Mrs. A. E. Stouffer, Sabetha, Kansas, writes in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman:

"Peruna is the best medicine for catarrh of any organ. I was troubled with head-ache, palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, and suffered very much every month. If I did any hard work I would have cramps. I was treated for inflammation of the right ovary, but I was not cured. I also had catarrh of the head, and offensive breath and had to spit a great deal. After I had taken about half a bottle of Peruna I could do work which I had not been able to do in three years. My friends say they never saw such a change in a woman. I work hard every day now and it doesn't seem to hurt me, either. Peruna did it all. I talk to everyone about Peruna did it all. vrites in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman: did it all I talk to everyone about Peruna. I can not say too much for it. "When I wrote you I had given up all hope of being strong again. Peruna has given me health and strength that no doctor ever did for me. Peruna is the best medicine that was ever made for women. "My husband says it is the cheapest doctor he can get."-Mrs. A. E. Stouffer. This is the same old story told by thou-sands of women in a thousand different ways. Female trouble, doctors fall to vays. Female trouble decists have cure; Peruna, as a last resort, a happy relief from a dreary servitude to aches, pains and a complication of physical anguish that can never be described. These women all tell the same story. Pains all gone. Dragging sensation gone. Quivers and throbbings and tremblings and dizziness and nausea and the irregularities and painful periods—all gone. In their place has come vigor and vivacity. walth and happiness, peace and patience, grace and gratitude.

Peruna is a wonder-worker in female diseases and yet the explanation of it is simple. Catarrh is the cause of the trouble. Peruna cures the catarrh, the cause being removed the symptoms dis-If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving the full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable.
